

INFORMATION FOR BOOK REVIEWERS - THE REVIEW

Please do not summarize the book in a per chapter description. We would instead prefer the publication to be placed into a wider context of the subject at hand, and if possible/relevant to be compared to existing work. Critique and praise are both equally welcome. We ask reviewers to be constructive and respectful in their reviews.

For monographs: 700 words (min) – 1400 words (max)

For edited volumes or multiple book reviews: 1750 words (max)

Please organize your text in two or three section headings in the main text

The use of notes should be avoided as much as possible

Please provide the following details:

- Short review synopsis (of 20 words max). This can be a few words, such as ‘An intriguing and inspiring book’, or a sentence from your review. This short synopsis will be included in the first following Newsletter or email update after your review has been published on www.iias.asia/the-review;
- Your name;
- Your affiliation and email;
- Your short bio:

Should you decide that you do not wish to review the requested title after all, please contact us per email (thereview@iias.nl) and send back the book to the address below at your earliest possible convenience. The book will then be offered to another reviewer.

Please do not hesitate to contact us (at thereview@iias.nl) if you have any questions.